Workshop 2: Saturday, July 9 & 23
12:00-2:00 pm

WHERE:
Trumbull Art Gallery
158 North Park Avenue, Warren, Ohio

During the first session of this two-day workshop, students will focus on the construction of a holiday gnome from stoneware clay. Once dry, all gnomes will be bisque fired.

The second session will take place two weeks later where students will glaze their gnomes in preparation for the second firing.

Both sessions include instruction, materials, glazes and firings.
